

Achievers 2022

Certificate

Based on its financial performance,

Ima Engineering Ltd Oy

has been analysed as an Achiever in the achiever classification of Alma Talent. Companies receiving Achiever certification are stable businesses with solid growth, good financial results and profitability, a strong financial structure and liquidity to ensure continued operation.

A comparison of these key indicators has put this company in the top tier of its own industry and the entire country for two successive years. The Continuous Achiever 2021-2022 rankings are based on financial years between June 2020 and May 2022.
